Elba Police find missing vehicle inside vacant building

by Linda Hodge, Editor

Elba Police last week located a missing vehicle that went missing from the Cook Chevrolet lot in mid-July. Elba Police Lt. Russ Young said the privately-owned vehicle had been towed to Cook Chevrolet for mechanical repairs in July, and it allegedly went missing from the lot a short time later. Young said the missing vehicle was reported to Elba Police in August.

On Wednesday, Nov. 17, the police department received a call reporting a potential 'break-in' of the old Elba Middle School building. Lt. Young said further investigation of the building revealed a vehicle matching the description of the one that went missing from the Cook Chevrolet lot in July.

"It appeared someone had been working on the vehicle trying to get it running again," Young said.

Elba Police are asking that anyone with information that could help locate the person responsible for taking this vehicle from the Cook Chevrolet parking lot contact the department at (334) 897-2555.

This vehicle found last week inside the vacated building once the Elba Middle School was determined to be the vehicle reported missing to Elba Police in August from the Cook Chevrolet parking lot. The vehicle was on site there for repairs at the time it went missing, according to police.

Elba BOE approves handful of personnel matters

by Linda Hodge, Editor

The Elba Board of Education met Tuesday night, Nov. 16, for its regular monthly meeting, and a handful of personnel matters were approved by the board.

Two resignations were approved. These included William Moguel, Elba High School ISS aide, and Darlene Burrow, Elba Elementary School aide.

Three hires recommended to the board and approved included: Kaye Whitworth to be the new Elba High School secretary, Linda Tillis to be the new Elba Elementary School secretary, and Theresa Carr to be a bus driver for Elba City Schools.

Superintendent Chris Moseley noted that Carr had experience as a bus driver. He said she had been driving for the Coffee County School System but was leaving there to come and drive for Elba City Schools.

Also, during the meeting, the board approved the execution of a new contract with the system's Chief Financial Officer, Valiece McKelvy. The approval of this contract was unanimous vote by all members present.

The board approved some policy changes, recommended by the school nurse. These included the addition of a new sunscreen policy, and changes to administration of medication, student injury/student illness, and AED use.

Moseley advised board members on some positive things that had been going on for students. He said two seniors, Collin Sauls and Peyton McCard, signed golf scholarships with Enterprise State Community College earlier in the day last Tuesday. Also, he said senior football player Chrystyle Caldwell had been invited to play in the North/South All-Star game for the state on Dec. 17th in Mobile, Ala.

Moseley said he was very proud of these student-athletes and their accomplishments.

Elba City Schools has been on holiday this week for Thanksgiving, but Moseley said there would be plenty happening once students return. On Tuesday, Dec. 7, a band concert will be held at the high school [including the elementary school band], and on Thursday, Dec. 9, he said there will be a Show Choir concert that will include students in grades 3rd - 6th.

The superintendent said often there is no need for a meeting in December; however, he said he felt like there could be a need for a meeting this year whether it be a called meeting or the regular meeting. He said he would update later on that.

REMNANTS OF A FIRE FOUND IN TIGERTOWN PARK BATHROOMS...The Elba Fire Department was dispatched Monday morning, Nov. 22, to the bathrooms at Tiger Town Park where a potential fire was reported. Upon arrival on scene, officials discovered the fire had taken place previously and already been extinguished; however, the damage caused was evident. There was evidence of fire in both bathrooms, but the damage was far worse in one [as pictured above]. Each appeared to have been started on the baby changing station inside the bathroom. Reports have been filed on the incident, and the bathrooms have been closed at this time.

Coffee County's residential garbage pickup for Thursday will move to Friday this week manager Mike Thornton reminded citizens that Thursday's garbage pickup [Nov. 25th] would be shifted to Friday, Nov. 26, due to Thanksgiving.

Also, Thornton said there would be no shift in residential pickup this year for the Christmas and New Year's holidays due to the way they fall.

Upon request of county engineer Marty Lentz, commissioners approved a hauling bid for crushed stone. This bid was awarded to Foshee Trucking at $19.50 per ton.

The next regular meeting for the Coffee County Commission is scheduled for Monday, Dec. 13, at 9 a.m. in New Brockton.

Holiday Traditions...

What are your favorites?

by Reannon Odore, ZC 11th grade student

With the fall and winter holiday fast approaching, the "Rebel News Staff" thought it would be fun to ask several Zion Chapel students and employees about their favorite holidays, their favorite holiday foods, and more.

Those interviewed included: Coach Kennedy Logan, Emma Killingworth, Coach Randy Bryant, Maddison Bassett, Tyler Logan, Jacob Durga, Angie Davis, Lee Boutwell, Lori Hilburn, Ashley Kilpatrick, and Christie Trawick.

"What's your favorite Thanksgiving food?"

Six out of the 11 people said dressing, while the other answers consisted of sweet potato casserole, ham, and turkey.

"What's your favorite holiday?"

Six out of the 11 people said Christmas. The others answered Thanksgiving, New Years, and the Fourth of July.

"What's your favorite family tradition?"

Coach Logan said her favorite tradition would have to be starting her Christmas tree from scratch every year. She said her family puts all the old ornaments in a box and makes new ones to put on the tree every single year.

Emma Killingworth's favorite tradition is going to her grandma's house every year during Christmas because her grandmother hides their stockings and they have to find them.

Mrs. Davis' favorite family tradition is reading the Christmas story from Luke 2 every year before opening gifts.

Mrs. Kilpatrick said her favorite family tradition would have to be watching Christmas movies with her family every year.

Mrs. Trawick's favorite family tradition is going to evening Christmas church service with her family.

"What are you most grateful for?"

Six out of 11 people said their family.

Mr. Logan answered, "the opportunity of being able to teach and share my passion with students."

Mrs. Hilburn said, "salvation."

A few others said their children, and we had one (who shall remain unnamed) say he is most grateful for his truck.

"When do you open Christmas gifts? On Christmas Day or Christmas Eve?"

Seven out of 11 people answered Christmas Day. Three out of the 11 people answered both.

Coach Logan answered with "a week before" because her family takes a Christmas trip every year.

"A truly happy person is one who can enjoy the scenery while on a detour." — Unknown

The Italian auto maker Ferrari has just announced a new limited edition muscle car, "you read this as a muscle car." It is something with an 829 horsepower V12 engine that will go from zero to 100 in under three (3) seconds! Of course, there will only be a few hundred of these monsters built. No sweat, we know of not a single public highway in the world where they can legally max out to the 211 miles per hour top speed. The German Autobahn has no official speed limit, just some wording like 'safely'. If you have a bit over two million dollars to squander, you might be 'lucky' enough to snag one of these collector items. Delivery is scheduled to begin late next year. Please don't ask us to help pay the annual insurance premium on this death trap!!!

Just when we think that 'politically correct' language has reached it breaking point, something new pops up. Now we read that a state board in Colorado is considering dropping the term 'Sex Offender' because it is "offensive". They quote an individual who is in fact a convicted offender and claims it is "inappropriate and downright offensive." Speaking out against such a change was a woman who is a rape survivor. She notes that the actions of sex offenders "are choices that sex offenders make" and not some affliction they can't control. Our response would be much stronger. However, a much milder response is, "A rose is a rose by any other name."

We finished the book on the first seven astronauts and 'they made it into space!' This book, while about the whole team that launched the era of outer space travel, was mostly a John Glenn story. He was one of the first seven, first to orbit earth, and later served in the U. S. Senate and again went into space as an old man to prove it could be done. It was enlightening to read that there was a lot of back biting, competition, etc. among the trailblazers, yet they sucked it up and supported (or in present day slang - had each other's back) the space project wholeheartedly.

To outsiders, things might seem quiet in Elba these days. However, that is not reality. We have of course written about the police department, critical shortage of certified patrol officers and right now only an 'acting' chief. Then there is the 'up in the air' planning issue for a permanent location of the Chamber of Commerce office following the fire that destroyed the Chamber's office. The only ideas aired publicly have resulted in heated debate in a City Council workshop and later the official meeting. Much harsher words have been reported outside the meetings. That matter ironically involves the City of Elba, plus two supposedly independent groups - Economic Redevelopment Authority and the Chamber of Commerce. The slow progress on the sewer system upgrade is causing a growing cadre of complaints about the torn-up roads, broken water lines, etc. Then please don't forget the local schools . . . fill in our own blanks here but there are some unique rumors and ideas floating around. There is apparently no instant cure for either of the above ills, but if either of the above issues "goes away", we can easily find a couple of replacements to keep the heated discussions going!

AARP Alabama warns consumers about holiday shopping scams

Nearly 8,000 people call AARP's Fraud Watch Network helpline every month to report suspected scams, and a newly released AARP Fraud Watch Network Survey shows that calls related to holiday scams may be on the upswing soon.

"The holiday season is a time for togetherness, celebration, and giving," said AARP Alabama State Director Candi Williams. "Unfortunately, the gift-giving process, from purchasing the perfect gift to making sure it gets to the recipient, also brings multiple opportunities for scammers to enrich themselves."

Scammers deploy a number of tactics to steal during the holidays, ranging from online shopping scams, to scams involving the draining of gift cards, to package and shipping scams. The AARP study found that many consumers may be opening themselves up to risk as they shop this holiday season.

Here are some key findings from the survey:

76% of Alabamians have been targeted by or experienced at least one form of fraud in the past

76% of Alabamians will use their debit cards this holiday season (credit cards and digital wallets are safer online)

64% of Alabamians plan to purchase gift cards as a holiday gift, and 58% rely on purchasing them off the rack (a known target for scammers)

54% intend to use peer-to-peer (P2P) apps like Venmo, Zelle or Cash App to send money, and 54% of P2P users have sent money to someone they didn't know well (not recommended)

39% of Alabamians reported receiving a request for a monetary donation to a charity that felt fake or fraudulent

37% of Alabamians have received a fake notification about a shipping issue (which is separate from the equally important issue of packages still being stolen from porches)

In addition, the research showed that online shopping, which became the shopping method of choice for many American consumers as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic, remains extremely popular, underscoring the need to know how to do so safely. Unfortunately, survey findings also show that many Alabamians don't know how to do that, with most respondents failing related questions on a short quiz. For example, only 29% of adults in Alabama know that online retailers will not ask you for your login credentials to provide customer support, and only 38% know that using a credit card vs. a debit card online offers greater protections.

"Ultimately, the point

safety guidelines for Thanksgiving

Many people are busy making final plans for Thanksgiving and the upcoming holiday season. What's the recipe for a healthy and happy Thanksgiving holiday 2021?

The Alabama Department of Public Health (ADPH) suggests including the following components, with the main ingredient being COVID-19 vaccination for all eligible children, adolescents and adults age 5 and older. Booster shots are also recommended for groups of eligible people at least 2 weeks before holiday gatherings.

That's because the virus that causes COVID-19 transmits easily and can spread during shared meals and traditional holiday activities that may involve multiple generations. In addition to vaccinations, the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention recommends the following measures to minimize risk.

• Wear a mask when grocery shopping or in other public indoor settings or when serving food.

• Wash your hands before here isn't to take the joy out of this time of year or take the fun out of gift-giving, but to help consumers be aware so they can protect themselves and their loved ones," said Williams. "This holiday season, serve your holiday cheer with a side of skepticism to help stay safe from increasingly sophisticated scammers."

ADPH recommends following COVID-19

safety guidelines for Thanksgiving

• Outdoors safer than indoors, weather permitting.

• Communicate in advance with guests about your COVID-19 ground rules and the precautions you're taking. Cancel plans if you are sick and stay away from others.

• Safe Travels. If possible, delay travel unless you are fully vaccinated. If you are traveling with unvaccinated family members, such as children who are not yet eligible to be vaccinated, take additional precautions. Avoid crowds, wear a mask, and get tested before and after your trip.

Last year an upsurge of COVID-19 cases was experienced following the holiday season. Even though cases, hospitalizations and deaths due to COVID-19 currently are far fewer than in the late summer peak, the course of the virus is unpredictable.

No single solution exists for all groups and families, and all risks cannot be eliminated. For some individu-

In the spirit of Thanksgiving, Cuzin Lou Lou mist give credit where credits is due...even if it pains her to admit it!

Last weekend Lou Lou was suddenly put down by some sort of stomach bug. It came on quickly but hung around too long to suit Lou Lou. This is where the credit due part comes into the tale.

The stomach bug sent Lou Lou to bed in complete misery. She does not do sick well at all.

Although Sister laid out some threats of "you better not make me sick with Thanksgiving coming up" she still was a champ in taking care of Lou Lou. On night one of the misery, Sister tried to get some nourishment to Lou Lou with chicken noodle soup and crackers accompanied by a Sprite. Unable to "stomach" more than a few bites and crackers, it was mostly a wasted meal, but it was the thought behind it that warmed Lou Lou's heart.

Day Two of dealing with the stomach bug created by the devil himself, found Lou Lou moving from the bed to the recliner. However, there wasn't much movement beyond that. Again, Sister was close by to grab this or throw that away when Lou Lou asked.

Papa even got into take care mode by relinquishing a portion of his creamed potatoes at lunch for Lou Lou to try and get a little more food inside her system.

As Lou Lou relaxed on the recliner, she thought about how thankful she is for her Yonder gang! Sister, Papa, and Lou Lou all love to pick on each other daily, but when it comes down to it, they are always there for one another no matter what. That is the stuff thankfulness is made of whether it's at Thanksgiving or any other time of the year.

From Cuzin Lou Lou and the Yonder gang, we wish you a Happy Thanksgiving filled with lots of love!

Until next time...God Bless and Keep Smiling!

ALEA offers Thanksgiving safety tips

This holiday season, travel experts are predicting pandemic numbers as millions of Americans prepare to reunite with their loved ones. In accordance with national travel forecasts, Troopers within the Alabama Law Enforcement Agency's (ALEA) Highway Patrol Division are expecting to see a significant increase in the volume of traffic on Alabama's roadways and will be working diligently to ensure everyone is able to gather around the table with friends and family this year.

"During the 2020 Thanksgiving holiday travel period, ALEA Troopers recorded nearly a 30 percent decrease in statewide traffic fatalities, which resulted in three fewer traffic-related deaths in 2020 as compared to 2019. Our Agency's mission is to save lives, therefore, our goal this Thanksgiving holiday travel period is to ensure that trend continues. Our Highway Patrol Division has developed a very specific and deliberate holiday enforcement plan that targets those areas in which historically, we have documented an elevated number of crashes. This initiative includes proactive patrols utilizing a variety of enforcement techniques along our major thoroughfares, specifically Interstates 10, 65 and 85," said ALEA Secretary Hal Taylor.

Recently, ALEA partnered with the Alabama Department of Transportation (ALDOT) in their new campaign, "Not a Game," to promote work zone safety and inform drivers of recent changes to the state's construction zone law. Fines for any moving traffic violation committed in a construction zone where workers are present will now result in a $250 fine or double the regular fine, whichever amount is greater. Double fines will now be given for dangerous driving behaviors such as speeding, tailgating, aggressive driving and distracted driving.

"It is our duty to not only enforce state laws but also educate and inform citizens so that everyone is fully aware of any changes and can make wise decisions while traveling. These laws are in place to protect everyone including the motoring public, construction zone workers, pedestrians and emergency first responders," said Secretary Taylor.

ALEA Troopers will be patrolling roadways, enforcing the law and assisting motorists. Additional shifts to prevent traffic crashes, injuries and fatalities are made possible with grant funding from the Alabama Department of Economic and Community Affairs (ADECA) and ALDOT.

"We are especially thankful this holiday for our Troopers and other law enforcement partners who will be sacrific-

AUM partnership to create new opportunities for ESCC students

Enterprise State Community College students can now take advantage of new opportunities with Auburn University at Montgomery that will help them save time and money as they pursue four-year degrees.

ESCC and AUM signed a partnership agreement on Wednesday, Nov. 10, that outlines concurrent enrollment and transfer scholarship opportunities for ESCC students.

"One of our missions at Enterprise State Community College is to offer our students every opportunity possible to go further in their education," Vice President/Dean of Instruction Danny Long said. "This agreement falls in line with that mission and allows our students who are planning to pursue a four-year degree to save both time and money. We are proud of this partnership with AUM and look forward to continuing to work with them in the future."

The concurrent enrollment program offers qualified students a seamless process for completing their associate and bachelor's degrees. All concurrent AUM courses will be taught live on the ESCC campus and/or AUM's campus and online while students coming part of their holiday and time with loved ones to patrol Alabama roads and keep all of our citizens and visitors safe," said Secretary Taylor. "On behalf of the Alabama Law Enforcement Agency, I would like to wish everyone a happy, safe and peaceful holiday season."

Additionally, ALEA offers the following safety tips and reminders for citizens this Thanksgiving holiday:

- On multi-lane roadways, use the left lane for passing only. Not only is it courteous driving and avoids impeding traffic, but Alabama law also requires slower traffic to keep to the right and to only use the left lane for passing (when posted). Motorists can drive for a mile and half in the left lane before needing to move back over.

- Alabama's seat belt/child restraint law requires ALL passengers – no matter how old or which seat they are occupying – to be buckled up.

- Do not drink and drive. Make alternate travel plans if you are consuming alcohol. Individuals under the age of 21 are prohibited from consuming alcohol and it is illegal for anyone to have an open bottle of alcohol in a vehicle.

- Avoid driving distracted. Distractions include texting, utilizing a cell phone or smartphone, talking to passengers, watching videos, playing mobile games, adjusting the radio, navigation system or other devices. Distractions endanger drivers, passengers and bystander safety. Alabama law prohibits texting while driving as well as searching the Internet on a mobile device while operating a motor vehicle.

- Drive defensively, as holiday travel may present additional challenges.

- Don't drive fatigued – allow plenty of time to reach your destination.

- Monitor weather and road conditions wherever you are traveling. For road conditions/closings in Alabama, visit www.alea.gov/weather-advisories.

- Stay alert when shopping and driving through crowded parking lots. Stay vigilant and park in well-lit areas when shopping at night. Citizens should lock their vehicles and remove any valuables, including money or wallets from plain sight. Slow down in congested parking lots and stay alert for shoppers and pedestrians.

- Move over when approaching emergency or tow vehicles. Alabama's Move Over Law requires motorists to move over or slow down to 15 mph or less than the posted speed limit if you are not able to change lanes.

Fine Arts Christmas showcase returning to ESCC campus

Enterprise State Community College's Fine Arts Student Art Exhibit and Christmas Concert is returning to the ESCC campus this year, just in time for the start of the holiday season.

The annual event highlights the visual and musical talents of ESCC fine arts students. Last year, the event was presented virtually as a prerecorded concert and art show. This year, the community is invited to attend the event in person on Thursday, Dec. 2, to meet with student artists and watch student musical performances.

"We are pleased to welcome the community back to our campus for our annual in-person Student Arts Exhibit and Christmas Concert," ESCC Fine Arts Division Chair Dr. Ken Thomas said. "The interaction between our students and their audiences is contagious. The energy that is shared cannot be replicated. I am always encouraged by the conversations that are shared with our students and guests."

The event will start at 5:30 p.m. with the Student Art Exhibit, located in the

Charity During the Holiday Season

During the holiday season, many of us are left to ponder not just the grief that flares up but also "items" those we have lost have left behind. While some pieces are important to keep as family heirlooms and other personal reminders, many items can be donated to those in need.

Preparing items for donation can be difficult. It makes you sort through the personal effects of someone you have lost and reexamine that person's life as they lived.

Organization and taking your time are the best ways to cope with some of the negative feelings associated with cleaning out the artifacts left behind. Reach out for help from family when possible. If that is not possible, the support of friends can help make the process a little less emotionally taxing, as well.

Donating items no longer needed can help to ease the physical burden that loss can add to one's life while also giving back to help make someone else's life a little easier. Large items like furniture, extra clothing, some electronics, and other pieces can be donated to charities if they are in good condition. Many organizations will even help you haul away large items or numerous donations. Another added bonus is that many of these donations are tax-deductible.

Additionally, if you are planning a service for a lost loved one, you can request that in lieu of flowers a donation be made to a charity or cause the deceased was closely affiliated with. Many organizations will accept donations in honor of someone who has passed on and those dollars will help those affected by similar conditions and ease the burden that illness puts on other families.

Donating to others during the holidays can help brighten the lives of families in need while also providing a tangible way to work through the pain of loss.

The Pressbox

By Ricky Mularz, Sports Editor

Our grandson Lawson has big plans for the Thanksgiving break and told me they don't even include eating turkey. I'm not sure just what he has on his schedule, but he is going to allow me and his Nanny to drag along. I just hope we aren't dragging too much by the end of the week!

For what it is worth....

 Longtime Elba High football coach Mack Wood always said to win a state championship a team must find a way to win one night in the playoffs when things aren't going right a long way from home. The Brantley Bulldogs did just that last week on a chilly and damp night in west Alabama as they battled past Keith 20-14 to advance to this week's semifinal round. Brantley's fans were thinking their team would roll in the third round match-up since they pounded the same team by 42 points last season, but the Bulldogs had to fight for all four quarters and proved once again they take each game one at a time. Brantley has proven all season long it has the right combination of offense and defense to challenge any opponent, and that formula may be just what the doctor ordered as they make a return trip to the semifinals!

 It was an interesting week in the third round of the playoffs with more than one upset taking place. In Class 7A, the final between Thompson and Central Phenix City is one everyone has seen coming for weeks, and will find two-time defending state champion Thompson going up against a Red Devil team that has outscored its victims 564-175. In Class 6A, high-scoring Clay-Chalkville outscored Gardendale 50-44, while Hueytown, which has scored 698 points this season, clobbered Opelika 46-10. In Class 5A, Pike Road, which has outscored its opponents 566-128, spanked Faith Academy 42-0, and Andalusia posted its third impressive playoff win with a heart-stopping 20-14 win over UMS-Wright. In Class 4A, Vigor picked up its 12th win of the season with a 26-10 victory over American Christian, while Jackson posted its ninth straight win after a 2-2 start with a 24-23 win over defending state champ Handley. In Class 3A, Catholic rolled past Hillcrest Evergreen 41-6 and has now outscored its victims 629-33, while Saks posted its tenth straight win with a 14-7 upset over state-power Fyffe. In Class 2A, Highland Home kept on rolling after a 2-5 start with a stunning 15-14 win over top-ranked Lanett, while Clarke County, which struggled to a 2-8 record just two years ago, fought past B.B. Comer 14-7. In Class 1A, Pickens County, which has averaged 50 points a game in the post-season, outscored Decatur Heritage 60-46, Woodland ended its season with a 5-8 record after a 27-0 loss to Wadley, and Sweet Water has now outscored its playoff opponents 144-14 after posting a big 41-7 win over Maplesville.

 Don't look now, but the high school basketball season has already tipped off and it looks like fans have an exciting season ahead. In a quick preview of area teams....  The Elba Tigers will be short, but extremely quick as they look to bounce back from two straight losing seasons, while the Lady Tigers, only two years removed from a trip to the Final Four, will field maybe their youngest team ever as their roster includes one senior, no juniors and eight eighth-graders.  The New Brockton Gamecocks took a giant step forward last season and will field a team loaded with experience, while the Lady Gamecocks hope to put an end to a long dry spell and appear to have a team that can steal some wins.  The Zion Chapel Rebels are no longer a team to beat, and have already posted three wins in early-season action, while the Lady Rebels hope to begin the rebuild of a winning program, but have averaged only 17 points a game in three early-season losses.  The Kinston Bulldogs will have their third different head coach in three years, but do have plenty of experience and should be solid as the season progresses, while the Lady Bulldogs have enjoyed recent success and will look to keep it going after a win in their season opener.  The Brantley Bulldogs will be looking to bounce back after a season derailed by Covid and appear to be loaded, while the Lady Bulldogs look to bounce back from a rare losing season with a very young team that includes one senior and no juniors on the roster.

 Ye Ole Polish Prognosticator dropped by over the weekend and was still shaking his head over the post-season success of Highland Home. The local guesspert declared the Squadron was what high school football was really all about as the team bounced back from a 2-5 start to move into the semifinals. I agree it is a great story, and there will be even more stories to write about this week as teams fight for a berth in the Super Seven. After posting a 7-2 slate last week, here is this week's fearless forecast....

BRANTLEY VS. SWEET WATER

The bulldogs from up past the creek will be back at the pound this week and won't have to drink any of that so-called sweet water that they serve down in the lower part of the state. While the dogs will have their hands full, they have developed into a complete team with no weaknesses and will show off for the home folks on Friday night.

Elba wraps up middle school season
Elba swept by Bulldogs

The Elba Tigers and Lady Tigers traveled to Brantley last Monday afternoon in junior high basketball action and came home with two losses.

Elba fell behind early and never recovered in a 30-19 loss to the Bulldogs. The Tigers trailed 8-2 after one quarter and trailed 16-8 at the half as they took the road loss. Cassidy Carpenter scored 8 points to lead Elba, while also scoring were Jay Wilson 4, Johnathan Edwards 4 and Jaden Baker 3. Micah Owens scored 14 points and Andre Wright added 8 to lead Brantley.

Elba saw a third quarter lead vanish in a 44-30 loss to the Lady Bulldogs. The Lady Tigers led 22-1 at the half and carried a 24-19 lead into the final quarter, but fell victim to a furious Lady Bulldogs ally. Makayla Moore scored 14 points to lead the Lady Tigers, while also scoring were Brittany Williams 8, Ny'Asia McCollough 6 and Casey Williams 2. Dixon scored 24 points to lead the Lady Bulldogs.

Elba splits with 'Brockton

The Elba Tigers and Lady Tiger closed out the middle school basketball season last week with home games against the New Brockton Gamecocks.

The Tigers fell behind in the second quarter and never caught up in a 31-21 loss. Elba was tied at 6-6 after one quarter, but fell behind 16-9 at the half and watched as the Gamecocks pulled away late to take home the win. Cassidy Carpenter scored 8 points to lead the Tigers, while Johnathan Edwards scored 6, Jay Wilson 5 and Easton McKelvey 2. Anthony Silar scored 17 points to lead New Brockton.

The Lady Tigers wrapped up a winning season with an exciting 31-29 win over New Brockton. Elba trailed 15-9 at the half, but rallied to carry a 22-21 lead into the final stanza and claimed the win when Makayla Moore hit a buzzer-beater from just inside the arc. Ny'Asia McCollough scored 17 points to lead Elba, while Keelie Moseley added 6 points, and Brittany Williams and Makayla Moore both scored 4. Reese Eddins scored 8 points to lead the Lady Gamecocks, while Jenna Kate Weeks and Gabby Eubanks scored 6 points, apiece.

Brantley Bulldog cheerleaders made the long trip to Orrville and helped keep the Bulldog fans fired up as they cheered the team on to victory in second round playoff action with a 20-14 win over Keith.

Brantley Bulldog head football coach Roland Jones gets his teams attention in last week's 20-14 playoff win over Keith. The Bulldogs will host Sweet Water Friday night with a trip to the Super Seven on the line.

Brantley Bulldog Daquan Pittman (5) pulls in a pass for a Bulldog touchdown in last week's 20-14 third round win over Keith. Pittman had 5 catches for 90 yards in the big win.

The Brantley Bulldogs cashed in a fourth quarter turnover to regain the lead and turned back a last-second Keith scoring threat to defeat the Bears 20-14, Friday night in the third round of the Class 1A football playoffs, at Orrville.

Keith jumped on top 6-0 in the first quarter when Terrell Lumpkin and Javon Richardson hooked up on a 90-yard scoring pass, but Brantley kept the Bears out of the endzone for the remainder of the half and grabbed an 8-6 halftime lead on a 35-yard touchdown toss from Tucker Kilcrease to Daquan Pittman and a two-point conversion.

Kilcrease added a 3-yard scoring run in the third quarter to push the Bulldogs lead to 14-6, but Keith never quit battling and pulled even at 14-14 midway through the fourth quarter when Lumpkin bulled over from one-yard out, and Jamal Jones passed to Jeffery Cochran for the two-point conversion.

Brantley recovered a Bears bobble at the Keith 18-yardline late in the fourth quarter and cashed in the turnover with 1:20 left on the clock on a 3-yard run by Kedrick Brown to regain the lead at 20-14, and while the Bears reached the Brantley 25-yardline in the game's closing seconds, the Bulldog defense turned back the threat with a fourth down stop to preserve the hard fought road win.

Tucker Kilcrease completed 13 of 17 passes for 190 yards and one touchdown and also rushed for one touchdown to spark the Brantley offense, while Kedrick Brown rushed for 90 yards and one td and also led the defense with nine tackles. Daquan Pittman caught 5 passes for 90 yards and one td.

Top-ranked (12-0) Brantley will host second-ranked (12-0) Sweet Water on Friday night at David Lowery Stadium in semifinal action.

Brantley Bulldog Tucker Kilcrease (12) waits in the pocket for a receiver to get open. Kilcrease completed 13 of 17 passes for 190 yards and a score and rushed for a td in last week's win.

State title berths on the line in semifinal playoff action

Two defending state champions and four undefeated teams survived the third round of the 56th AHSAA State Football Playoffs as 24 teams move into the semifinals in Classes 1A through 6A this week.

The Class 7A semifinals concluded Friday night with two-time defending Class 7A state champion Thompson (12-1) downing Hoover 35-10 to clinch the North berth in the Super 7 Class 7A championship game set for Wednesday, Dec. 1 at Birmingham's Protective Stadium. Central-Phenix City (13-0) beat Auburn 28-17 in the other 7A semifinal Friday night to claim the South berth in the 7A finals opposite the Warriors. It will be the Red Devils' third appearance in the last four years in the big-school title game.

The other classes will settle the other six championship games set for the Super 7 Dec. 1-3 on Friday, Nov. 26.

The third round started with nine undefeated teams in the hunt but only four survived – including Class 6A Clay-Chalkville (13-0), which beat Gardendale 50-44 in overtime.

Other unbeaten teams advancing from the third round are Class 1A Brantley (12-0) and Sweet Water (12-0) in Class 1A; Pike Road (12-0) in Class 5A; and Central-Phenix City (13-0), which sealed its spot in the 7A finals. Ironically, Sweet Water travels to Brantley in the Class 1A South semifinals this week.

This week, teams from the same region will meet in four semifinals while Auburn and Central-Phenix City (Region 2), Thompson and Hoover (Region 3) met from the same region Friday. In Class 6A, Region 4 rivals Hillcrest-Tuscaloosa (11-2) and Hueytown (12-1) met for the second time this season. Other region rematches include Andalusia (9-4) at Pike Road (11-0) from Class 5A, Region 2; Jackson (11-2) vs. Vigor (12-1) from Class 4A, Region 1; and Piedmont (11-2) at Saks (12-1) from Class 3A, Region 5. It will be the sixth time in seven seasons that two teams from that 3A region have met in the semifinals.

All 12 semifinals games are expected to be live-streamed over the NFHS Network's School Broadcast Platform this week, and 11 of the 12 games will be carried live over a radio or internet live-audio affiliate. The Class 1A-6A semifinal playoff pairings are below:

Zion Chapel Alumni Spotlight

by Jordan Saunders,
11th grade student

Zion Chapel has always been much more than a school. To many, it is a home, a place where they know they will feel supported and encouraged. An interview with Lee Boutwell, a 2004 Zion Chapel graduate, further explains just how much impact Zion Chapel School can have on a person.

Boutwell is the current middle school science teacher, and he remembers meeting friends every morning at the Zion Chapel Store to enjoy breakfast before starting the school day. This type of close knit community is still present today.

Having lived in Jack his whole life and returning to the school where he was once a student, Boutwell was asked what it was like to have his former teachers now be his colleagues.

"It is different, but you

get used to it," he said.

As for why he became a teacher, he replied, "I always had great admiration for my teachers, and it makes me feel as though I have done something meaningful. I can always look back and say I have done something of importance."

Many wish to make a difference in the lives of others, and Lee Boutwell is a prime example of how Zion Chapel molds the leaders of tomorrow.

ZC queens stay busy representing community

by Emma Killingsworth,

The Zion Chapel Queens have been busy for the past year representing the community. Reigning queens are; Hannah Arnold (Miss ZC), Allie Bunt (Little Miss ZC), Faith Adcock (Teen Miss ZC), Ashley McKenzie (Jr. Miss ZC), Annisley Taylor (Pre-teen Miss ZC), Sophie Prescott (Petite Miss ZC), and Paisley Allen (Future Little Miss ZC).

The events they have attended this year include riding in the parade at the Festival at the Well in Glenwood, Ala., assisting in the crowning of the Jack Day Pageant as well as participating in Jack Day. They rode in the Zion Chapel Homecoming Parade as well as the Peanut Butter Parade in Brundidge, Ala.

On Saturday, Nov. 13, the queens participated in the National Peanut Festival Parade in Dothan, Ala.

The girls gain confidence through their titles and love setting positive examples for other young ladies. Being a Zion Chapel Queen is truly a worthwhile experience for all the girls involved.

Basketball season underway for Rebels

by Dayne Bannin and Cole McDaniel, 12th grade students

The basketball season is underway at Zion Chapel.

Coach Joshua O'Neal is beginning his third year of coaching at ZC and his second year as a head coach.

Coach O'Neal was interviewed about his expectations for the upcoming basketball season.

Due to last year's struggles with COVID-19, the Rebels missed nearly all of the first half of the season, and it was a real hit to the team. Coach O'Neal was asked his opinion on how getting quarantined last year affected the season. He said the biggest effect was having next to no practice and then having to come back and immediately play area games on less than two days of practice.

When asked about his initiative for this season, he said, "The primary goal for this season is to compete in our area and compete for an area championship. We set that standard two seasons ago, and we want to continue to push for that goal."

O'Neal believes the biggest change for him from last season to this season is consistency.

"We have a large senior group of eight athletes and we have high expectations," he said.

O'Neal believes those seniors' expectations are in line with the coaches' expectations as well.

Lastly, when questioned about the new gym, it was evident Coach O'Neal is definitely excited about it. He also mentioned he is extremely grateful for the excellent leadership the superintendent gives along with the rest of the school administration.

Coach O'Neal further acknowledged the strong support of the student body. He said he is excited to create some great new experiences and moments in this upcoming season and many more to come.

ZC Band gets all superior ratings for marching season

by Adalyn Breana Sanders,
9th grade student

This past marching/football season, the Zion Chapel Marching Rebels attended two band competitions and attained all superior scorings.

The first competition at Rehoboth took place on September 23rd. The band had much fun arriving and watching the other bands perform before they took the field with pride. After marching the show, they enjoyed themselves as the day grew dark and the last band performed.

They were very pleased when they were called to attention to hear their scores being called out so everyone could hear.

The second competition, Elba's Pea River Marching Band competition, took place on October 23rd, and it turned out just as pleasing. The performance and day was a tad bittersweet as it was the last competition for some, but as they suited up and once again took the field, everything felt serene. After marching off the field, the band enjoyed the food, drink, ice cream and band merchandise before University of Mobile's Ram Corp took to the field to perform what could be called the competition's half time show.

After Ram Corp performed, many of the band kids were able to talk to the performers before once again being called to attention to hear the perfect scoring of all superior. After hearing their scores, the bands went down to the field and celebrated, taking pictures and chatting before they embarked for the ride home.

The band then assembled to do the pride cheer for the last competition of the season, and for some, their last marching band competition ever.

The season closed on a very positive note. The Zion Chapel Marching Rebel Band worked hard to achieve their ratings and are and plan on pushing even farther in the upcoming seasons.

ZC Seniors celebrating Alabama College Application Week

Fall season proves busy for Zion Chapel students

by Elijah Barker,
10th grade student

As winter approaches at ZC, it allows all to reflect on the school year so far. From the humid and sunny heat of August to the crisp, cool air of November, Zion Chapel hosted several events and activities throughout the fall part of the school year, and October was a busy month.

Students received their first report card of the semester which allowed them to improve their grades and increase their GPAs. The PTO also hosted the annual Fall Festival where many high school students gained community service hours by supervising games and activities for the younger students.

There was a costume contest and also the announcement of the Harvest King and Queen, Austin Lee in kindergarten and Raelynn Johnson in third grade.

Additionally, the Rebels had an eventful football season and finished with an astonishing game against Pleasant Home winning 39 to 24.

During the last week of October, the school participated in "Red Ribbon Week" where students and faculty were encouraged to avoid drugs and alcohol. To celebrate making good choices, the cheerleaders and football players shared popsicles with the elementary school students to act as role models for the children. After all, making healthy life choices is "cool!"

Lastly, Zion Chapel seniors participated in the statewide Alabama College Application Week. ZC's participation was spearheaded by Angie Davis, counselor, and Mandi McPhaul, career coach.

Seniors spent the week meeting with local colleges, submitting college applications, taking career interest inventories, and planning for the fast approaching future that awaits them.

As November settled in, the students and faculty looked forward to the approaching holidays, basketball season, and finishing the first semester strong. There is always something happening at ZC!

Eligibility for COVID-19 booster shots expands

The Advisory Committee on Immunization Practices (ACIP) of the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) has authorized Pfizer-BioNTech and Moderna's COVID-19 boosters for all fully vaccinated U.S. adults, ages 18 and up. This follows emergency use authorization by the U.S. Food and Drug Administration (FDA) for all fully vaccinated American adults.

Adults initially vaccinated with the Johnson & Johnson vaccine are eligible for a booster dose two months after their first shot. Adults who received Pfizer and Moderna's booster shots are eligible for boosters at least six months after the completion of the initial two-dose vaccination series.

The Alabama Department of Public Health (ADPH) follows ACIP and CDC guidance regarding vaccination recommendation updates. Children ages 5 through 11 are eligible for vaccination, under Emergency Use Authorization, with Pfizer vaccine, the only COVID-19 vaccine currently authorized for children. The pediatric dose for Pfizer is a smaller dose given as a two-dose series, three weeks apart.

Children, ages 12 and above can be vaccinated under EUA with the Pfizer product as well as the standard adult dose. Pfizer vaccine has full FDA approval for individuals ages 16 and older.

The Moderna and Johnson & Johnson vaccines are EUA authorized for individuals ages 18 and older. Most hospitalizations and deaths due to COVID-19 in Alabama are among unvaccinated people. The best way to protect everyone is to be vaccinated, including people who have been infected with COVID-19 before.

For individuals 5 through 17 years of age, please check vaccines.gov or contact the provider to see if the Pfizer vaccine is offered before scheduling your appointment. All county health departments offer COVID-19 vaccine, but some locations do not have all three brands of vaccine available. All county health departments will offer the age-eligible vaccine products for free to ages 5 and older. Contact your county health department for availability.

hosts 9th Annual Veterans Appreciation Pheasant Hunt

Saturday, Nov. 13, 2021

Event is a way to say "thank you" to veterans

The Shiloh Kennels and Shooting Preserve, located at 13822 Highway 84, Elba, hosted its 9th annual Veterans Appreciation Pheasant Shoot on Saturday, Nov. 13, and a large crowd was in attendance for this growing event honoring all veterans.

A special emphasis is placed on this Veterans appreciation shoot by making it open to wounded warriors giving them a chance to enjoy the sport in a controlled, safe environment. It is organized each year by Don and Clint Bradshaw and their family.

The goal of the event is to raise monies with the Veterans appreciation hunt to support local veterans and fund the event. The event included a steak lunch for all participants followed by the pheasant hunt. It is provided to the veteran participants at no charge.

Sponsors paired with veterans to form teams for the hunt while their family members were able to observe the hunt from a designated viewing area.
